JAMES MOODY

Born in Georgia in 1925 and raised in Newark, New Jersey, James Moody took up the alto saxophone at age 16. After serving in the U.S. Air Force during World War II, Moody joined Dizzy Gillespie's influential bebop big band. Moody's now legendary 16-bar solo on Gillespie's "Emanon" alerted jazz fans to an emerging world-class soloist. He made his recording debut as a leader (James Moody and His Bebop Men), using players from the Gillespie band. In addition to being inducted into the International Jazz Hall of Fame in 1996, Moody was awarded an Honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from Florida Memorial College; the prestigious Jazz Masters Fellowship Award granted by the National Endowment for the Arts; an Honorary Doctorate of Music from the Berklee College of Music; and the John F. Kennedy Center for the Arts Living Jazz Legend Award. In 2001 "Moody's Mood for Love" was inducted into the Grammy Hall of Fame "honoring recordings of lasting, qualitative or historical significance."

SCHOLARSHIP SELECTION COMMITTEE

Christian McBride: Four-time GRAMMY Award winner, bassist Christian McBride is one of the most important and prolific figures in the jazz world in the last 25 years. McBride is Artistic Chair and a Board Member of Jazz House Kids.

Renee Rosnes: One of the premier pianists and composers of her generation, Renee Rosnes has recorded and toured with many jazz greats. In 1989, James Moody hired Rosnes for his quartet, and she remained a member of his band until his passing in 2010.

Todd Coolman: Two-time Grammy Award-winning bassist Todd Coolman is among the most in-demand musicians on the New York music scene today. He has performed and recorded with a virtual "who's who" of jazz masters. Coolman enjoyed a 25-year stint touring and recording with the James Moody Quartet.

Ted Chubb: A native of Ohio, Chubb began his career performing with Mid-West jazz legends, organist Bobby Floyd and saxophonist Gene Walker. He has performed across the globe with artists from an array of musical genres and is active on the New York City jazz scene. Chubb serves as Manager of Student and Artistic Performance as well as Teaching Artist for Jazz House Kids.
